The Suspect
Monday, 9pm
29th August
ITV

Aiden Turner heads the cast of this drama about a successful psychologist with a loving family who is more than happy to help police when a woman is murdered.

Joseph O'Loughlin's successful life is thrown off course thanks to a medical diagnosis, leaving him feeling reckless. When police ask for his help with a murder he's shocked by the brutality of the crime, but is that the whole story, or is something else going on?

Hotel Custody
Thursday, 9pm
1st September
ITV

Going behind the bars at one of the UK's busiest police custody centres. It's state-of-the-art with en-suite cells, room service and detainees treated as 'guests'.

Practical jokes keep spirits up as the team tackles a violent detainee striking out at officers. Meanwhile, Sergeant Jason hasn't time to celebrate his 50th birthday as he must pacify an aggressive woman who's kicking and screaming after being arrested.

It'll Be Alright on the Night
Friday, 9pm
2nd September
ITV

David Walliams presents another selection of bloopers, slip-ups and accidents from the archives featuring some of the small screen's biggest stars.

Peter Andre is clawed by a kitten, Martin Clunes is slapped by a monkey, one of the Real Housewives of Cheshire falls down a flight of stairs, and a fly causes chaos for Jane McDonald on live TV. As the stars come crashing down, will the show go on?
