The sale of media conglomerate Waystar Royco to tech visionary Lukas Matsson (Alexander Skarsgård) moves ever closer. The prospect of this seismic sale provokes existential angst and familial division among the Roys as they anticipate what their lives will look like once the deal is complete. A Brush with Comedy

Based on the RTS Award Nominated Short, the feature-length documentary delves into the connection between comedy and art and the creative processes of comedians. The story focuses on five comedians – Jim Moir, Spencer Jones, Bec Hill, Simon Munnery and Miriam Elia – as they create artwork over the course of three years, for a group exhibition in central London. We discover what each can do artistically, and what the end goal is in an attempt to discover the emotional, comedic and artistic tendencies that have never been seen before on screen. The film is written, directed, narrated and partly shot by Jim's son, Louis.
